

Motivating the Team – Course Outline

Duration: 3 Hours

Course Description

This interactive briefing workshop identifies the main motivators affecting people in the workplace. It covers the different types of motivation and gives ideas about how to design job roles to meet individual needs. You will also be provided with tips and ideas on how to overcome demotivation in staff members.

Who should attend?

Business owners, managers of teams or any manager responsible for the day-to-day running of a team.

What will it cover?

- Theories of human motivation
- Motivation to work
- Identifying team motivation
- Job design for higher motivation
- Identifying demotivators
- Strategies to deal with demotivators
- Importance of feedback to individuals and teams
- How to get the team engaged in the success of the business.